Sharing of information will usually only occur where there is a cause for concern regarding student care, welfare or behaviour or material breaches of the Tenant's obligations in the Tenancy Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt the Tenant hereby authorises the Landlord and the Agent to share the Tenant's sensitive personal data with the Tenant's educational institution and/or with the Guarantor for all reasonable purposes connected with the tenancy and authorises the Tenant's educational institution to provide the Landlord with the Tenant's home and/or forwarding address. If the Tenant has not complied with their obligations in the Tenancy Agreement the Landlord may refuse to give a reference, or may give an adverse reference as long as it is factually correct.

6.3. The Landlord's and the Agent's liability for loss or damage to person or property is excluded unless the loss or damage is caused by (respectively) the Landlord's or the Agent's negligence, breach of statutory duty or breach of obligation in the Tenancy Agreement (which includes the acts or omissions of (respectively) the Landlord's or the Agent's employees and agents).

6.4. The Landlord is not liable to repair any damage caused by the Tenant (or their visitor) unless and until the cost is met by insurance or by the Tenant (any excess on the policy being payable by the Tenant) or unless and until the Landlord has a statutory obligation to do so. If the Landlord has a statutory obligation to repair the Landlord may nevertheless claim the cost of doing so from the Tenant where it was the Tenant who caused the need for repair. If the Landlord (acting reasonably and after proper investigation) is persuaded that the Tenant (or their visitor) caused damage deliberately or recklessly, the Landlord may claim the cost of repair from the Tenant instead of claiming against insurance.

6.5. The Landlord may temporarily suspend use of the Common Parts if they are not kept in a clean and tidy condition by the residents using them (provided that this does not create any health risk).

6.6. Items belonging to tenants:

6.6.1. The Landlord is entitled to remove from the Accommodation or the Common Parts any article which constitutes an obstruction or a fire or health or safety risk or which (in the Landlord's reasonable opinion) is likely to cause damage to the Building but (unless perishable) will if requested return it to the Tenant on the termination of the tenancy (proper and reasonable removal and storage costs being payable by the Tenant).

6.6.2. If the Landlord has to clear rubbish left anywhere other than the bin stores, and cannot find out who left it there, the Landlord will be entitled to charge the proper and reasonable costs of removal to the residents who have access to the area where the rubbish was left.

6.6.3. The Landlord is entitled to remove any item left at the Building by the Tenant at the end of the Tenancy Period and shall not accept any implied appointment as bailee in respect of any such item; and shall not be obliged to return any such item to the Tenant. If an item is of obvious value the Landlord will deal with it in accordance with clauses 6.6.4 to 6.6.7.

6.6.4. The Landlord will use reasonable attempts to contact the Tenant if any item of obvious value is left at the Accommodation but if the Landlord (despite reasonable efforts) is not able to contact the Tenant, or if the Tenant does not collect the item from the Landlord, or give the Landlord directions as to where to send it, within a reasonable time of the Landlord making contact, then the Landlord shall be entitled to sell the item for the best price reasonably obtainable.

6.6.5. If the Tenant requests the Landlord to forward an item, the Landlord may require the Tenant to pay the costs of postage or shipment (where the costs exceed £2.50) before agreeing to send the item. Provided the Landlord has addressed the item as requested by the Tenant, and obtained a certificate of posting, the Landlord shall not be liable to the Tenant if the Tenant does not then receive the item. Items will not be sent recorded, insured or special delivery unless the Tenant requests it and pays the shipper's costs in advance of despatch.

6.6.6. If the Landlord is entitled to sell an item under this clause 6.6 the Landlord may use a proper and reasonable amount from the proceeds of sale in or towards payment of any debt which the Tenant owes to the Landlord and will also be entitled to deduct the proper and reasonable costs of effecting the sale and forwarding the proceeds, but will otherwise promptly use reasonable endeavours to return the proceeds (or the balance of them) to the Tenant.

6.6.7. If it is not possible (despite reasonable efforts) for the Landlord to contact the Tenant, or if after making initial contact it is then not possible for the Landlord to return any proceeds of sale to the Tenant's last known address or card account, then the Landlord shall be entitled once 6 months have expired after the end of the Tenancy Period to use the proceeds to pay for new Contents for the Building. This clause does not affect the Tenant's right to the proceeds of sale, if the Tenant claims them subsequently, but the Tenant shall not be entitled to demand a return of any item which the Landlord has sold as permitted by this clause.

6.7. Right to carry out building works on adjoining land:

6.7.1. The Landlord reserves full rights to carry out at any time building works on any adjoining or neighbouring property, and to alter or rebuild any buildings already erected on, any adjoining or neighbouring property and to use such adjoining or neighbouring property or any present or future buildings in such a way as the Landlord thinks fit.

6.7.2. Whilst the Landlord will use all reasonable endeavours to minimise inconvenience to the Tenant, and where possible give advance notice of any works, the rights in clause 6.7.1 shall apply even though access of light and air to the Building may be affected or the amenity of or access to the Accommodation or Building may be temporarily obstructed altered or interfered with and / or some noise, vibration or dust may be experienced during any programme of works.

6.8. The tenancy of the Accommodation shall be an Assured Shorthold Tenancy as defined in the Housing Act 1988.

6.9. The Landlord shall not be liable to the Tenant under the implied covenant for quiet enjoyment for the actions or negligence of any other occupier in the Building if the other occupier's act or neglect is in excess of their own legal rights or in breach of the terms of their tenancy agreement.

6.10. The Guarantor's obligations can only be brought to an end as stated in the guarantee agreement and not by any early termination of the tenancy.

6.11. The Tenancy Agreement is not intended to confer any benefit to anyone who is not a party to it other than the Agent.

6.12. The Tenancy Agreement contains all the terms agreed to by the parties at the time it comes into effect and any variation to the terms will only be effective if agreed between the Tenant and the Landlord. The Landlord will confirm any agreed variation to the Tenant in writing at the time the variation is made.

7. Termination of the Tenancy Agreement

7.1. The Landlord may terminate the Tenancy Agreement at any time before the Tenant takes occupation if the Tenant does not achieve the examination results required to start or continue their course of study at their chosen university or college. The Tenant has an obligation to notify the Agent promptly as soon as s/he becomes aware that s/he will not be able to start or continue his/her course, in line with the cancellation policy. Failure to notify the Agent in good time reduces the possibility of finding a replacement occupier, and may make the Tenant liable to continue paying Rent, even though, as a non-student, s/he is not eligible to occupy the Accommodation.

7.2. The Landlord may terminate the Tenancy Agreement at any time before the Tenant takes occupation without notice to the Tenant if the Tenant has not paid the Deposit, the agreed rent payments, or provided the Guarantor and also in the case of a no show where the Tenant has not taken up residence within 5 days of the start of the Tenancy Period and has not made prior arrangements with the Landlord for late arrival, but the Tenant will be liable for the Rent up to and including the date of termination.

7.3. Unless the Tenant has made arrangements with the Landlord, the Landlord shall be entitled to terminate the Tenancy Agreement without notice to the Tenant if the Tenant has not taken up residence and has not made payment within 7 days of the payment due date, but the Tenant will be liable for the Rent up to and including the date of termination.

7.4. The Landlord shall be entitled to terminate the Tenancy Agreement at any time before the Tenant takes possession of the Accommodation if the Landlord is reasonably satisfied that the Tenant deliberately or recklessly gave false information when applying for a tenancy.

7.5. The Landlord shall be entitled to apply to court for termination of the tenancy and possession of the Accommodation if any of the Grounds numbered 2, 8, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 14A, 15 or 17 in Schedule 2 of the Housing Act 1988 exists or arises. This will not release the Tenant from any liabilities the Tenant has already incurred.

7.6. The Landlord and the Agent shall not have any liability to the Tenant or the Guarantor if the Tenancy Agreement is terminated as permitted by clauses 7.1 to 7.5.

7.7. Unless the tenancy has already started the Tenant may cancel their Tenancy Agreement (by giving the Landlord written notice of cancellation) at any time during the 14 days (the "Initial Cancellation Period") after completing the booking process up until the 1st August. After the 1st August the 14 day cooling off period becomes 7 days. If the Tenant cancels the Tenancy Agreement in these circumstances the Landlord will make no charge and will return the Deposit in full to the Tenant.

7.8. If the Tenant wishes to cancel their Tenancy Agreement after the Initial Cancellation Period, or after the tenancy has started, the Tenant will be liable for the Rent and any applicable Fees for the full Tenancy Period or, if shorter, for the period until a replacement tenant takes over responsibility for payment (replacement tenant is to have paid both deposit and rent payment before termination of tenancy is confirmed). If a replacement tenant is found, the Tenant will be liable for the Landlord's administration charges of £50.00 for dealing with the changeover, payable within 7 days of invoice or by using the Deposit. On payment of the administration fee and commencement of the new tenancy, the Landlord will release the Tenant from their Tenancy Agreement.

7.9. The Landlord reserves the right to relocate the Tenant to comparable alternative accommodation during the Tenancy Period where it is reasonable to do so but, unless the relocation is at the Tenant's request or because the Tenant is in serious or persistent breach of one or more of their obligations in the Tenancy Agreement, the Tenant will have the right to terminate the Tenancy Agreement (without having to comply with the conditions in clause 7.8) as an alternative to relocating. If the relocation is at the Tenant's request or because the Tenant is in serious or persistent breach of one or more of their obligations in the Tenancy Agreement, the Landlord shall be entitled to charge the Tenant a £50 administration fee for dealing with the transfer. If the Tenant, at their own request, transfers to more expensive accommodation they and their Guarantor shall be liable to pay the higher rent from the date the Tenant is given access to the more expensive accommodation.

7.10. The Landlord reserves the right to provide to the Tenant alternative accommodation in the event that the Accommodation is unavailable for the Tenant at the start of the Tenancy Period provided always that the Tenant shall have the right to terminate the Tenancy Agreement (without having to comply with the conditions in clause 7.8) should the Accommodation not be available for a period of more than 4 weeks after the start of the Tenancy Period.

7.11. Where, at the Tenant's request, the Landlord agrees to relocate the Tenant to other accommodation owned by the Landlord, the Tenant shall pay the Landlord a Fee of £50 (payable within 14 days of invoice, and in any event before the Landlord will give the Tenant keys to the new accommodation) towards the Landlord's and Agent's administration and room inspection costs, in accordance with the Landlord's Transfer Policy on the Landlord's website. The Tenant will surrender their tenancy of the Accommodation on the day they leave it and on the same day take a tenancy of the new room for the remainder of the Tenancy Period. The tenancy of the new room will be on these terms and conditions, except for the description of the Accommodation, which shall be amended by a memorandum signed by both parties.

7.12. The Tenancy Agreement shall terminate if the Tenant dies during the Tenancy Period and the Tenant's estate shall not be liable to pay the Landlord any Rent or Fees relating to the period after death.

7.13. If the Landlord is not able to provide the Accommodation, the Landlord will use reasonable endeavours to offer the Tenant alternative accommodation of equivalent or better quality at the same price. The Tenant will accept the alternative accommodation if it is in the same Building, but the Tenant may reject an offer of alternative accommodation and recover any pre-payments s/he has made to the Landlord if the Landlord fails to provide alternative accommodation in the same Building. If the Accommodation or a suitable alternative is not available, the Landlord will not be responsible for paying the Tenant's hotel expenses other than for accommodation in a budget-range (2*) hotel or in bed & breakfast accommodation for up to 2 nights for one person in or as close as possible to the city where the Building is situated. Reclaimable travel costs will be limited to travel from the Building to such temporary hotel or bed & breakfast accommodation and from there to the Tenant's choice of alternative accommodation in the same city as the Building (mileage chargeable at 40p per mile; public transport at standard class cost). A student whose Tenancy Agreement is for a specially adapted room for reasons related to their disability shall not be required to accept any alternative room offered by the Landlord unless it is suitably adapted and shall be released from their Tenancy Agreement if none is available.

8. At the end of the tenancy

8.1. Unless already paid for during the Tenancy Period, the Agent will invoice the Tenant within 21 days of the end of the tenancy for the costs of putting right any Tenant's breach of the tenancy terms and conditions and the Tenant must pay the invoice within 14 days of the date on the invoice (without affecting the Tenant's rights in the case of a genuine dispute over the charges).

8.2. The Tenant agrees that the Deposit may be used as payment, or part-payment of the invoice(s).

8.3. The Tenant should try to inform the Agent in writing if the Tenant intends to dispute any of the charges within 14 days of the date of the invoice. The Agent may refer any dispute for adjudication and if it does so, the Tenant agrees to co-operate with the adjudication

8.4. The statutory rights of the Landlord and the Tenant to take legal action through the County Court remain unaffected.
